

Homework Projects ~ The Place Where I Live - Autumn 1

	2 team points	4 team points	6 team points
I enjoy reading, writing and speaking.	Write down 10 questions that you'd like to find out about our topic this term.	Read a story written by Janet and Allan Ahlberg.	Interview someone to find out what it was like living at home in the past. Write down what you learn.
	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:
I enjoy working with numbers.	Look at the front of your house. What 2-D and 3-D shapes can you see?	Learn which numbers are odd and even, using homes down your street.	Collect data about the different types of homes people in your family live in. Record this in a tally chart or pictogram.
	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:
I enjoy painting and creating.	Draw an artistic picture of your home and label it.	Draw a map of your street. Use a key to show us what things are. Do you know your address?	Create a new shop that would be useful for people in Immingham.
	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:
I enjoy being active and doing things.	In our topic we will learn how hard children had to work in the past. Help your parents do some jobs around the home.	Go for a walk around Immingham with a grown up and show them what you have learnt about the local area.	Walk to the library and borrow a book which links to the topic we are learning.
	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:
I enjoy using equipment.	Using a camera or iPad take photographs of your favourite places around Immingham.	Go to the shops with an adult. Help them add up the prices. Write a shopping list of items you bought!	Make a model of your house using recycled materials.
	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:	Date completed: signed:

Your homework book is a place for you to show what you have learnt. You can use it like a diary.

Choose at least one homework project to complete per week. Once completed, place your homework book in the homework tray ready to share with the class!