

Handwriting

At Coomb Briggs, the children in Year 1 will use pre cursive handwriting. Children will practise adding lead ins and lead outs to their letters, which then ensures the letters start and finish in the correct place ready for their writing to be joined.

Please can you encourage your child to write using this font, as this will support them ready for joining their letters. Lead ins are used throughout the whole school so it is important that they are included.

